

The Clark County Sheriff's Office & the FBI LEOKA Program presents:

The FBI's Law Enforcement Officers Killed and Assaulted (LEOKA) program is a nation-wide law enforcement safety initiative. Ongoing research is dedicated to our nation's law enforcement professionals who continue to make many sacrifices in serving and protecting society. FBI LEOKA Officer Safety Awareness Training is designed to assist law enforcement managers, trainers, and personnel in the identification of training issues for the purpose of preventing the deaths and/or serious injuries of law enforcement personnel. This program is based on more than twenty-years of research by the FBI in collaboration with local state, and federal law enforcement agencies throughout the United States.

This presentation includes review of case studies with video interviews of officers and offenders involved in violent encounter situations.

Date: January 18, 2013

Time: 0900-1300 hours

Cost: FREE

Location: Water Resource Center, 4600 SE Columbia Way, Vancouver, WA 98661

Seating is limited to 150 law enforcement personnel.

FBI LEOKA Trainer: Marcus J. Young is a military veteran and served 20-years in law enforcement. He earned a Master's degree in Counseling Psychology and Bachelor's degree in Organizational Behavior from the University of San Francisco, CA. In 2004, President George W. Bush and California Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger awarded Marcus a Medal of Valor following an officer involved shooting incident. Since 2009, Marcus has presented the FBI LEOKA program to more than 18,000 law enforcement and military personnel throughout the United States, Canada, Guam, and Italy. In 2012, the FBI LEOKA Program has presentations scheduled throughout the United States.

Marcus can be contacted at marcus.young@leo.gov or (707) 621-3456.

Please contact for course registration:
Sgt. Tim Bieber - Clark County Sheriff's Office
Telephone # 360-397-2276
E-mail: tim.bieber@clark.wa.gov

Testimonials about Trainer Marcus J. Young:

"This class should be mandatory for all law-enforcement personnel. The class reviews critical topics for officer safety and developing a conditioned response. The course illustrates the value of ongoing fundamental training, physical, and mental preparedness. Utilizing a variety of teaching techniques, Marcus Young presents interviews with violent offenders, elicits stories from the audience, and shares his own compelling personal story. This class is extremely powerful and thought-provoking and could quite possibly save your life."

Debra D. Barry, Sergeant, Marin County Sheriff's Office

"Marcus Young's LEOKA class is nothing less than extraordinary! This class should be part of the in-service training officers receive every two years. The knowledge you receive will save your life!"

Officer Daniel Chui San Francisco Police Department

"Sgt. Young has taken a tragic event and magically transformed it into something powerful and positive that is helping officers and trainers everywhere he goes."

Dr. Alexis Artwohl, Psychologist & Author

"Marcus Young presents eye-opening information that every officer should know and understand to better prepare for the life-threatening perils inherent in law enforcement. The story of his deadly encounter and the amazing outcome is a compelling testimony of training, mental preparation, and the will to survive."

James W. Billings, Jr., Chief of Police, Pueblo Police Department, Colorado

"Marcus Young's presentations are nothing short of inspiring. It is impossible not to be moved by Marcus' experiences and commitment to training."

John Bostain, Senior Instructor, Federal Law Enforcement Training Center, Georgia

"Marcus Young's training is of great value to law enforcement worldwide! He is a living role model for law enforcement and military audiences everywhere. His personal experience in overcoming adversity is a true testimony to the human spirit, and a motivational message that will inspire any audience."

Dave Grossman, Lieutenant Colonel, U.S. Army (Retired), Scholar & Soldier

Testimonials about Trainer Marcus J. Young:

"The two principle ways we learn how to do our job are training and experience. The latter - experience - is the best teacher. However, absent experience all we have to rely on is training. There is training - and then there is TRAINING - and when you are in a program presented by Mr. Young - you will get TRAINING from someone who has truly "been there - done that". His style and experiences allow for the rapid transfer of "memory markers" and allow the attendee the ability to assimilate valuable information for later recall. You will not be sorry you spent some time with Marcus Young."

Gordon Graham, Captain (retired) California Highway Patrol

"The FBI's LEOKA training, presented by Sergeant Marcus Young, is proven to be an invaluable addition to any law enforcement officer's toolbox in dealing with the public. Upon attending his training, the value to military anti-terrorism/force protection and security training teams also became immediately apparent to me. Mr. Young presents the information in a way that impacts his audience and leaves a lasting impression -- both hallmarks of an outstanding instructor!"

J. M. McComb, Lieutenant Commander, United States Navy

"It was an honor to learn the lessons taught by Sergeant Young, as he is a modern day warrior who has gone on to train others in law enforcement the skills and mind set needed to survive a deadly encounter. Thank you for continuing to give back to the law enforcement community."

Jimmy Martinez, Lieutenant Gang Bureau, Denver Police Department, Colorado